On behalf of the European Health Economics Association, the French Health Economics Association, the College des Economistes de la Santé (CES) and Paris-Dauphine University are pleased to host the next PhD Student— Supervisor Conference in Paris, September 2–4, 2015.

This is a unique opportunity for PhD students and Early Career Researchers (ECRs) to present work in progress, gain invaluable feedback from supervisors and peers, and network with students from across Europe.

Conference session format:

We propose to start on the afternoon Wednesday, 2th of September, after a welcome coffee, presentation and detailed discussion led by another student's supervisor, or senior economists.

The conference session format will be as follows:

- 25 minutes presentation by the author
- 15 minutes discussion by a senior economist
- 20 minutes for questions and general discussion

The conference will take place at Paris-Dauphine University (in the West part of Paris, 75 016).

During the conference, the participants will discover Paris through unique access to the Palais d'Orsay, for a visit and a dinner in the greatest museum for the arts of the nineteenth century.

The registration fee includes the access to the three days of conference, two lunches (3th of September and 4th of September), two dinners and refreshments throughout the conference.

To reflect the distinctive conference format, students/ECRs and supervisors can register jointly for just 300 € per person. Single registration rate is 400€.
